

Proposed fault-record detection across turns and load

Each cell is the fraction of eight ordered 3 s macroblocks alarmed within one dual-three-phase fault record.

12.5% = 1/8 blocks. The heatmap reports failures as observed; it does not imply that block-wise observations are independent repetitions.